Exide Life Term Rider

Ensuring that your family is safe, secure and has a comfortable lifestyle at all times is of paramount importance to you. However, life is unpredictable. To protect your loved ones from the uncertainties of life, Exide Life Insurance Company Limited (Formerly known as 'ING Vysya Life Insurance Company Limited', hereinafter referred to as 'Exide Life Insurance') offers you an option to add an additional protection at a nominal cost. It ensures that your family is always secure and has a comfortable lifestyle – at a fraction of a cost.

What are the key features of the Exide Life Term Rider?

- Benefit of an additional life cover at a nominal cost.
- Death due to natural, accidental and any other peril covered.

How does this plan work?

Exide Life Term Rider cover is available as a rider, which means that you can add this benefit to any of your existing eligible Exide Life plans (Base Policy) or include this benefit whenever you are buying a new policy. In order to continue with your additional protection benefit, you will need to pay due rider premium along with the premium of the Base Policy to which this benefit was attached. If you do not want to continue the rider protection benefit, you can intimate the company and stop paying the rider premium while continuing your Base Policy benefit as it is. However, once the rider is discontinued it cannot be reinstated.

What benefits are available under with plan?

Death Benefit: In the unfortunate event of death, a lump sum amount equal to the Rider Sum Assured on Death is paid and the rider cover ceases.

The Rider Sum Assured on Death is defined as Higher of (Rider Sum Assured or 10 times the Annualized Rider Premiums, excluding GST and premiums paid for extra mortality loading).

The Death Benefit at any point of time shall not be less than 105% of the Rider premiums paid, excluding GST and premiums paid for extra mortality loadings.

Maturity/Surrender: This plan offers pure protection benefit and does not offer any maturity or surrender benefits.

Section 45 - Policy shall not be called in question on the ground of mis-statement after three years:

Provisions regarding policy not being called into question in terms of Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended from time to time. The extant provisions in this regard are as follows:

01. No Policy of Life Insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after expiry of 3 yrs from
 - a. the date of issuance of policy or
 - b. the date of commencement of risk or
 - c. the date of revival of policy or
 - d. the date of rider to the policy
 whichever is later.
02. On the ground of fraud, a policy of Life Insurance may be called in question within 3 years from
 - a. the date of issuance of policy or
 - b. the date of commencement of risk or
 - c. the date of revival of policy or
 - d. the date of rider to the policy
 whichever is later.

For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which such decision is based.
03. Fraud means any of the following acts committed by insured or by his agent, with the intent to deceive the insurer or to induce the insurer to issue a life insurance policy:
 - a. The suggestion, as a fact of that which is not true and which the insured does not believe to be true;
 - b. The active concealment of a fact by the insured having knowledge or belief of the fact;
 - c. Any other act fitted to deceive; and
 - d. Any such act or omission as the law specifically declares to be fraudulent.
04. Mere silence is not fraud unless, depending on circumstances of the case, it is the duty of the insured or his agent keeping silence to speak or silence is in itself equivalent to speak.
05. No Insurer shall repudiate a life insurance Policy on the ground of Fraud, if the Insured / beneficiary can prove that the misstatement was true to the best of his knowledge and there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer. Onus of disproving is upon the policyholder, if alive, or beneficiaries.
06. Life insurance Policy can be called in question within 3 years on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to expectancy of life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document basis which policy was issued or revived or rider issued. For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based.
07. In case repudiation is on ground of mis-statement and not on fraud, the premium collected on policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, within a period of 90 days from the date of repudiation.
08. Fact shall not be considered material unless it has a direct bearing on the risk undertaken by the insurer. The onus is on insurer to show that if the insurer had been aware of the said fact, no life insurance policy would have been issued to the insured.
09. The insurer can call for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof of age of life insured. So, this Section will not be applicable for questioning age or adjustment based on proof of age submitted subsequently.

[Disclaimer: This is not a comprehensive list of amendments. Policyholders are advised to refer to Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended from time to time for complete and accurate details.]
